

This policy establishes the necessary guidelines to avoid situations that put FDF at risk.

FDF's commitment is total towards the applicable national legislation and international good practices.

Employees are committed to and feel identified with the anti-corruption compliance program.

All policies of FDF and procedures complement each other in order to function as a machine to mitigate possible risks.

Fund of Funds Integrity Policy

FDF's anti-corruption compliance program is made up of several fundamental pillars, which are divided into training, accounting records, procedures for compliance with anti-corruption laws, and reports.

Anti-corruption Compliance Program

Training

Training is carried out for all collaborators.

Accounting records

The accounting records are aligned with the Financial Information Standards.

Procedures

FDF develops procedures in order to maximize compliance with applicable laws and good practices.

Reports

FDF encourages all employees to immediately report any suspicion of corruption.

Audits

FDF may carry out internal audits that verify compliance and possible areas of improvement to the anti-corruption compliance program.
